Parish Updates & Upcoming Events

Mission Appeal – This Weekend! We are pleased to welcome Fr. Brian Quigley, MCCJ, who is joining us this weekend at all Masses to share a mission appeal on behalf of the Comboni Missionaries. Please join us in extending a warm welcome.

Spruce Tree: Last Tuesday, the spruce tree between the rectory and the church was removed. While it was sad to see it go after so many years, the tree had been severely damaged by winter salt exposure, making its removal necessary. One unexpected blessing is that our statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary is now much more visible and can be more easily appreciated by all who visit our parish grounds. Although the removal cost nearly $1,800, it was a necessary expense.

Evening of Contemplative Prayer with Simone Robinson

THEME: BE STILL AND KNOW THAT I AM GOD

WHEN: Friday, 24 July at 7:00 PM

WHERE: Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, Freelton

COST: Gratis

Do you sometimes wish in your prayer times that you could hear God's voice more clearly? During our evening of contemplative prayer, your soul will find rest in God, and he, in turn, will speak into your rested heart. Little nuggets of teaching will be offered, along with serene music and guided times of silent prayer – making the evening an oasis for parched souls. In the past, some have called it the "perfect soul-spa."

Come as you are to this evening of encounter with God's love.

In order to know how many handouts will be needed, please register for this evening with Angela at office@olmcf.com or sign up in the annex.
